Corsets Now Available

We have just added to our sexy lingerie section of the website 14 new styles of handmade Satin and Leather corsets starting from only £100. Our corsets were successfully launched at this year's Erotica show and are now available to buy online. If you are unsure which size to order then please deduct 3 to 4 inches from your normal waist measurement to work out your corset size: a natural waist of 28 inches will give a corset size of 24 inches, whilst a natural waist size of 29 inches will give a corset size of 26 inches.

Countdown to Christmas

Ho ho ho, with less than 20 shopping days till Christmas, don't miss out on treating your loved ones or even yourself to some of our festive footwear. We have plenty to choose from with over 300 styles more than last year. From our ever popular thigh boots to a pair of New Rock goth boots or maybe a fluffy pair of mules for that works party.

Our Xtreme elves are already working hard in the warehouse packing and posting orders as fast as they are received. In order to fulfil all orders required for delivery before Christmas your order must be placed via our website www.xtremefootwear.co.uk no later than Monday 11th December.
